

Certified Veterinary Technician- Full Time

Position Overview

Due to significant growth, Lange Animal Clinic is currently seeking a full time Veterinary Technician. The ideal candidates will provide animal care by determining animal requirements; assisting with examinations and diagnostic procedures; assisting during surgery procedures; perform dental cleanings; feeding and caring for animals; maintaining supplies and equipment; and maintaining records.

Primary Responsibilities

- * Determines animal requirements by assisting with examinations and client discussions; reviewing care plans and records; completing laboratory tests and studies, and assisting with digital imaging.
- * Cares for animals by taking vital signs; collecting samples; administering medications, drugs, and vaccines; bandaging and wrapping wounds.
- * Supports operations by assembling required supplies and instruments; setting-up surgery table instruments; restraining animals; operating and monitoring anesthetic machines; hooking-up ECG monitors; preparing surgical site; placing catheters; performing blood draws; cleaning-up post-surgical site; maintaining sterile conditions; obtaining and verifying medications.
- * Maintains animals by feeding and watering animals; cleaning animals' rooms, cages, and equipment; changing cages; observing for clinical signs of disease.
- * Maintains safe, secure, healthy and humane environment by sterilizing and wrapping instruments; sanitizing and disinfecting boarding and operating areas; storing sterile supplies; verifying shelf life; following standards and procedures; complying with legal regulations.
- * Maintains animal records by documenting animal conditions, reactions, and changes; updating database.
- * Maintains equipment by following operating instructions; troubleshooting breakdowns; maintaining equipment supplies; performing preventive maintenance; calling for repairs.
- * Enhances knowledge base by participating in continuing educational opportunities

Skills & Experience

- * Certified Veterinary Technician preferred or at least 3+ years working as a Veterinary Assistant
- * Bachelors Degree preferred, but not required
- * Knowledge of Animal Behavior and Animal Husbandry
- * Strong documentation and analytical skills
- * Proven ability to multi task in a fast paced environment
- * Fosters safety and sterilization best practices
- * Ability to assist with diagnostics, in-house lab testing and dental cleanings
- * Strong Written and Verbal Communication Skills
- * Basic computer and typing skills- familiarity with Avimark a plus